Kindergarten Teacher

Mrs. Donna Johnston has taught half-day Kindergarten at St. Gertrude School since 2005. She provides developmentally appropriate instruction through a multi-sensory approach. With a B.A. in education from Doane College in Nebraska, as well as Kindermusik and Orton Gillingham training, she teaches an integrated curriculum by incorporating a wide variety of methods, including music and movement, high quality visuals and tactile methods. Mrs. Johnston recognizes the importance of a nurturing child/parent connection and balances it with a transitional school year. Students from the half-day program are ready to meet the challenges of 1st grade.
