

Mrs. Jeanne Cregan
Junior High Teacher (7th)/Math

Mrs. Jeanne Cregan (Mathematics, Grades 6-8) comes to SGS with a BA in Education from the University of Dayton and a Masters in Educational Leadership from Wright State University. After starting her teaching career in the Archdiocese of New York, Mrs. Cregan has taught in numerous schools in the Archdiocese including IHM, Holy Trinity, St. Vincent Ferrer and All Saints. She is proud to say that teaching only math is her “dream job” and strives to teach her children to “think” math. Mrs. Cregan thrives on sudoko puzzles. She has been a member of St. Gertrude Faculty since 2007.
