

Mrs. Nancy Flammer
Art Teacher

Mrs. Nancy Flammer has a BA in Fine Arts with a minor in Art Education from Edgecliff College with certification to teach K-12. Her concentration is painting, pottery and printmaking. Her passion is developing her students to use creative thinking skills, appreciation of all things art and gaining a sense of self through many art processes. After 20 years in the business world Mrs. Flammer began her true calling of teaching art. She has taught previously at Holy Trinity and All Saints and came to us at St. Gertrude in 1996.
