

Ms. Ruth Blom
Fifth Grade Teacher

Ms. Ruth Blom teaches Reading, English, and Religion to both fifth grade classes at SGS. She has earned her Masters in Education (2001) from Xavier University and holds a Reading certificate for K-12. In addition she has 33 post-graduate hours in Educational Administration (2010). Ruth holds an Advanced Catechetical certificate and loves teaching Religion. Hired in 1973 Miss Blom taught Math and Science, but switched to Reading when she earned her Masters. She enjoys teaching Reading and Writing and is well known for the response journals students create for some of the books they read. In addition, students create a yearly cookbook and a poetry project every spring. Using our Accelerated Reader Program is also a part of the fifth grade reading regiment. Ruth truly is a life-long learner and tries to instill a love of learning in all of her students. We are pleased to have her on our faculty.
