

Mrs. Suzanne Suprock
Intervention Specialist

Mrs. Suzanne Suprock is the Intervention Specialist at St. Gertrude School. Mrs. Suprock graduated from the University of Detroit with a degree in history and a secondary teaching certificate. After ten years of classroom teaching (the most exciting being the three years she taught for the Department of Defense in Germany and Okinawa), Mrs. Suprock took a nine year break for motherhood. She earned a Master's in Education at Xavier, with special certificates in reading, library, and learning disabilities. Mrs. Suprock arrived at St. Gertrude in 1984 and has continued to enjoy, in particular, working with the same students and parents over a number of years.
