

Sister Mary Magdalene, O. P.
Second Grade Teacher

Sister Mary Magdalene Soileau, O.P., teaches 2nd grade and religion to both homerooms. In 2005 she graduated from Aquinas College with a BA in education, and is certified to teach K-8. She has taken graduate level courses in Philosophy and Theology, and is currently working on a Masters in Education at Xavier University. Preparing children for First Communion is her favorite topic to teach. Her hands-on use of child-sized Mass vessels and vestments inspire the children to a greater love and appreciation for the Mass.

Originally from South Louisiana, Sister entered the Congregation of St. Cecilia in 2000 and made final vows in 2007. Her previous assignments were in Providence, Rhode Island (2005-2007), and Hampton, Virginia (2007-2009). In each assignment she taught 2nd grade. She joined the faculty at Saint Gertrude School in 2009.
